

A MATTER OF TASTE

SET YOURSELF UP – IRISH STYLE

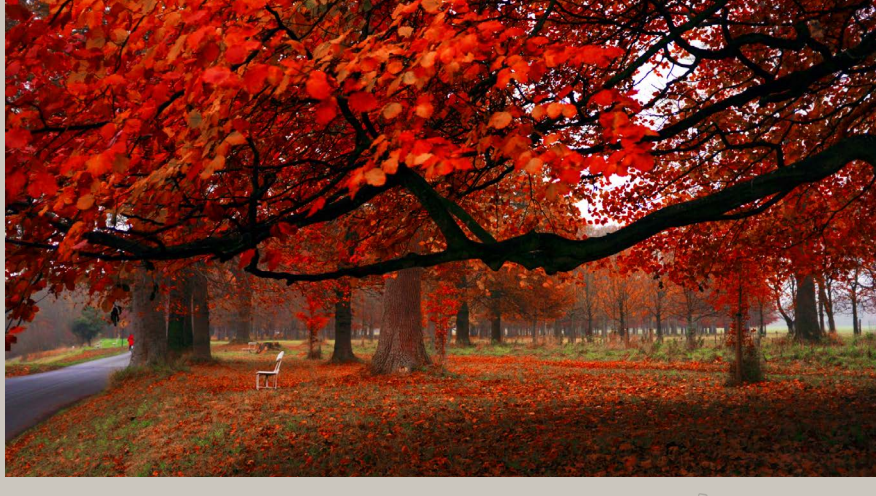

The Irish are famous for their breakfasts, and our own Seasons Restaurant will offer you the perfect 'Full Irish'. Don't forget to order some traditional black and white pudding, plenty of soda bread and a pot of tea – the perfect way to start your day in Dublin.

LUNCH WITH A TWIST

For an Irish lunch with a French twist, why not try the set menu at Michelin starred Chapter One on Parnell Square? The dining room is pure elegance and the menu offers an exquisite palette of flavours and textures.

DINNER IN THEATRELAND

The Trocadero is one of Dublin's most famous restaurants, and with its plush banquettes and dreamy atmosphere is a favourite with the city's theatrical celebrities. And the menu features nothing but locally sourced ingredients – Irish gourmet perfection.

A SIGHT TO BEHOLD

GUINNESS HEAVEN

No visit to Dublin is complete without a visit to the Guinness Storehouse. Take the tour and see how Ireland's most famous drink is brewed, and then visit the rooftop Gravity Bar to taste the finished product and discover the truth for yourself – Guinness really does taste best in Dublin!

A STROLL IN THE PARK

At 1,752 acres, you could spend all day in Phoenix Park and still not see half of it. The best way to explore the beautiful gardens and the park's world famous zoo is on a rental bike, or if you're feeling particularly adventurous, why not try a Segway tour?

A CITY OF WRITERS

From Joyce to Yeats, and from Heaney to Shaw, Ireland is a land of novelists, poets and playwrights. This rich literary heritage is celebrated at Dublin's Writers' Museum, and a fascinating audio tour offers enthralling insights into some of the world's greatest wordsmiths.

A PARTING GIFT

SHOPPING ELEGANCE

With over 40 high-end shops and restaurants, the Powerscourt Centre is housed in an elegant Georgian townhouse. Offering local fashions, Irish antiques, arts, crafts and jewellery, it's the perfect place to pick up a souvenir of your visit.

ON GRAFTON STREET

Made famous in song and poetry, Grafton Street is a riot of life, a place where locals and visitors alike come to browse and shop. And even if you don't indulge in some retail therapy, take time to enjoy the music played by one of the famous buskers who ply their trade on the street.

THE FINEST WELCOME

For a truly unique shopping experience, visit Sweny's, the pharmacy made famous by James Joyce in Ulysses. Now a secondhand bookshop and location for readings of Joyce's work, it has a reputation for being the most welcoming shop in Dublin. In a city of welcomes, quite a boast!

Contacts

Set yourself up

<https://www.ihg.com/intercontinental/hotels/gb/en/dublin/dblic/hoteldetail/concierge>

Simmons Court Road, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4

Chapterone

<http://www.chapteronerestaurant.com/the-food/>

18-19 Parnell Square N, Dublin 1

Trocadero

<http://www.trocadero.ie>

Trocadero Restaurant, 4 St. Andrew's Street, Dublin 2

Guinness heaven

<https://www.guinness-storehouse.com/en>

St James's Gate, Dublin 8

Phoenix Park

<http://www.phoenixpark.ie>

Phoenix Park, Parkgate Street, Dublin 8

Dublin's Writers' Museum

<http://www.dublin.info/writers-museum/>

18 Parnell Square, Dublin

Powerscourt Centre

<http://www.powerscourtcen-tre.ie>

59 South William Street, Dublin

On Grafton Street

<http://graftonstreet.ie>

Sweny's

<http://sweny.ie/site/>

1 Lincoln Place, Dublin 2

Our Ireland hotels

InterContinental Dublin

