

A MATTER OF TASTE

BREAKFAST IN PARIS

For a modern twist on a traditional French breakfast of homemade bread, pastries and great coffee, head to the Left Bank and Colorova Patisserie on Rue de l'Abbé Grégoire. If you fancy something more substantial, try the brunch menu – délicieux!

LUNCH IN BORDEAUX

Next to the magnificent opera house, Le Quatrième Mur is the place for lunch in Bordeaux. Run by two Michelin starred Philippe Etchebest, the menu is a tantalising mix of the familiar and the unexpected – like the city itself.

DINNER IN THE SOUTH

When it comes to dinner in Marseille, it has to be bouillabaisse at L'Epuisette in the little fishing haven of Vallon des Auffes. Or if you're in Cannes, La Palme d'Or sophisticated cuisine will guarantee an unforgettable evening.

A SIGHT TO BEHOLD

ALL PARIS IS HERE

Head to the old artists' quarter of Montmartre and you'll hold Paris in the palm of your hand. Here you'll find beautiful architecture, elegant restaurants, quaint streets, great shopping and the finest views of the city.

A PERFECT COAST

If you're in Cannes or Marseilles, you'll be spoilt for choice. Inland is idyllic Provence, or stay by the coast and discover some of the best beaches in the world. And of course, fine food and wine around every corner.

CULTURAL BORDEAUX

The fascinating museums of this sophisticated city are perfect for recharging your cultural batteries. For a truly world-class gallery, visit the Musée des Beaux-Arts and enjoy masterpieces by Titian, Rubens, Renoir and Matisse.
