ENRICHING EXPERIENCES FOR OUR GUESTS AND OUR ENVIRONMENT

We believe that a responsible meeting is not only what you experience in the meeting room but also knowing that your hotel respects the destination around it.

We're proud to partner leaders in geotourism, the National Geographic Center for Sustainable Destinations. Our ambition is that guests enjoy enriching experiences that reveal what makes a place truly special – its heritage, culture and tradition – and the importance of protecting it.

At InterContinental we use a holistic approach to being a responsible business: to work from the grass roots up, recognising each individual hotel team as the experts best placed to use their local knowledge for developing community and environmental initiatives that meet the specific needs of the destination. This Insider Collection gives delegates access to some of these unique experiences, and for those meetings that stay in the meeting room, you can be assured our hotel is working behind the scenes to protect what is special about the place for fellow travellers.

RE-LIVE NANJING'S HISTORY AT XUAN WU LAKE

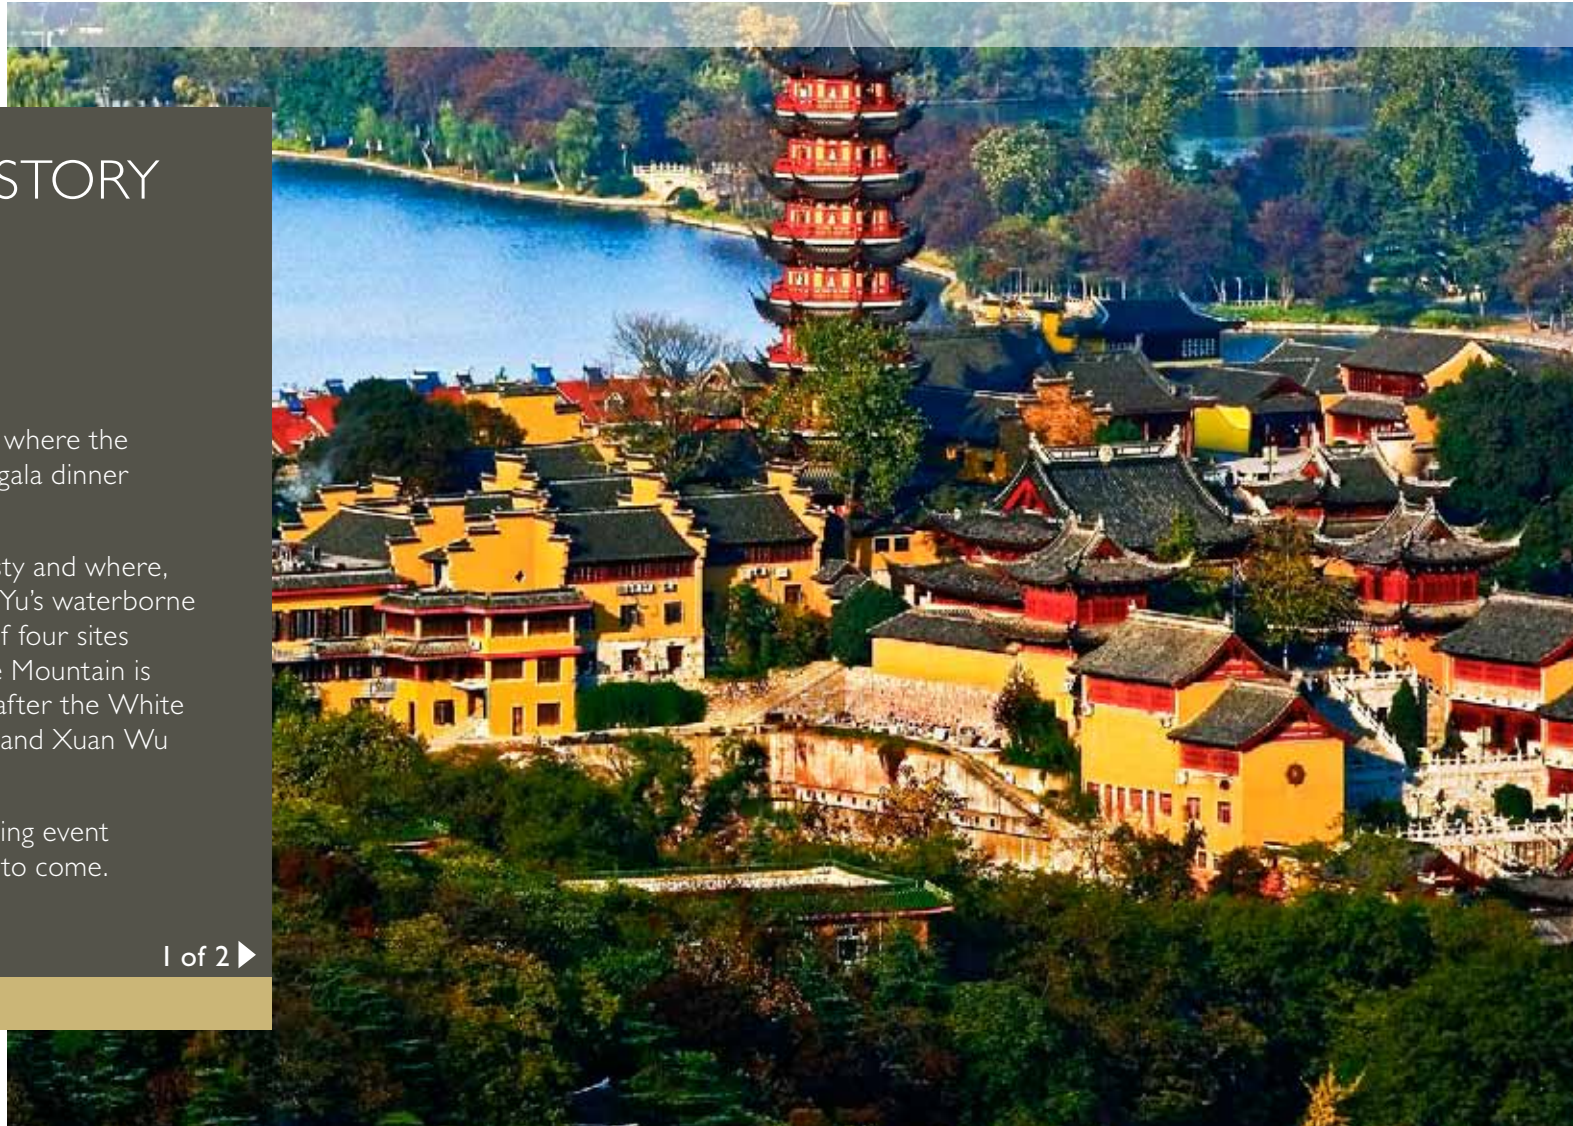

For a venue steeped in history Xuan Wu Lake where the east and north city walls cross is perfect for a gala dinner or cocktail reception.

Dating back over 2200 years to the Qin Dynasty and where, during the later Three Kingdom period, Zhou Yu's waterborne warriors once trained, Xuan Wu Lake is one of four sites named after fictional animal characters. Purple Mountain is named after the Cyan Dragon, the City Wall after the White Tiger, the Qinhuai River after the Red Magpie and Xuan Wu Lake after the Black Turtle.

This is a unique and original setting for a stunning event – one your delegates will remember for years to come.

CRUISE IN STYLE ON THE QINHUAI RIVER

Take a cruise on an ancient-style boat and experience thousands of years of history from the mother river of Nanjing – the Qinhuai River.

In olden times, many rich and noble families chose to live near the riverbank, which for thousands of years has nourished the population of Nanjing. The river inspired the many scholars who visited Nanjing to write articles and poems in its honour. Famous writers Zhu Ziqing and Yu Pingbo, once competed to write an essay about the river. Zhu Ziqing emerged as the winner and his article became a must-learn lesson for Chinese literature.

Our catering team will provide superb cuisine – the perfect complement to a wonderful evening gently cruising down the river of time.
