INSIDER LOCATIONS

Choose an InterContinental venue for your event and a world of possibilities opens up. As locals, your hotel team hold the key to a side of your locality tourists never see. What and who they know gives you an exclusive mix of authentic venues and experiences to play with.

INSIDER SPEAKERS

Bring your event to life with an inspirational speaker – someone who can really strike a chord with your delegates and enrich their experience beyond measure. Fascinating and engaging, motivating Insider Speakers range from celebrities and cultural experts to sporting heroes. Whatever their passion, they all have a local connection and you will discover that their unique insights and local know-how make your event one to remember.

INSIDER COMMUNITY

There's nothing quite like immersing yourself in the community to gain an added depth and understanding to your experience in a new destination. Insider Community has been designed to benefit local people and create truly memorable and meaningful experiences for your delegates too.

INSIDER INTERACTIONS

This team-building experience will help your delegates connect with each other as never before. Using the unique character, heritage or geography of your destination to inspire interaction, each experience, whether based on or off-site offers an original way to engage delegates and motivate them to build effective working relationships.

INSIDER BREAKS

With Insider Collection even your breaks are fulfilling experiences. From serving up a delicious lunch of provincial dishes for a taste of regional cuisine to spending some quality time with your Concierge team to get their best insider tips, a few minutes out of your busy schedule becomes a whole experience in itself.

YOKOHAMA OSANBASHI

The perfect location for exhibitions, seminars, training, cocktail parties, and more, Yokohama Osanbashi is the main international pier in Yokohama. Located just minutes from the hotel by car, it houses a stunning 2,000 sq metre promenade. This spacious building with floor to ceiling windows, is constructed of wood and steel with no pillars to obstruct views. Special visitors' decks are positioned for both passenger arrivals and departures and provide spectacular views of the harbour.

SANKEIEN GARDEN

No trip to Yokohama would be complete without a visit to Sankeien Garden, an authentic Japanese garden designed by Sankei Hara in 1906. Immerse yourself in the traditions of old-world Japanese culture. Enjoy original Japanese music and dancing, a classic tea ceremony and if you're lucky, take a ride around the park in a Jinrikisha (rickshaw), introduced to Yokohama in the 1870s. Private cocktail receptions and dinner parties can be arranged.

URASENKE TEA CEREMONY

Delegates can have the chance to witness first-hand an authentic Japanese tea ceremony performed by one of the senior teachers of Urasenke. This ceremonial preparation and presentation of the powdered green tea known as 'Matcha' is highly ritualized and the manner in which it is performed is known as sado. Urasenke (literally 'the rear Sen house/family') is the name of one of the main schools of Japanese tea ceremony. Your delegates will be charmed and are guaranteed to come away from the experience enlightened on the hidden depths of this ancient tradition.

HATSUKO ENDO KIMONO DRESSER

PLANT OUT ELL GRASS

Plant out the Ell Grass in the water of Nojima Park, a popular part of Yokohama. By helping to plant Ell Grass, your delegates will be contributing to the improvement of water quality and thus the protection and enhancement of local fish varieties. Volunteer staff at the InterContinental Yokohama Grand regularly participate in this project and the hotel can arrange for delegates to take part too.

JAPANESE TRADITIONAL TOYMAKING

Your delegates can enjoy a unique team building activity creating traditional Japanese toys for needy children at a local Japanese children's hospital and orphanage. Japan has a unique set of traditional toys, which have been around for centuries and are still popular with Japanese children today. One of the best-loved is Daruma Otoshi, a classic Japanese game of stacking discs made of wood. The objective of the game is to remove all the wood discs by hitting the bottom disc up with a wood hammer, a traditional version of Jenga. Your delegates will take home a truly memorable experience, as well as the satisfaction of having supported the local community.

SCAVENGER HUNTING IN CHINATOWN

A map provided to your delegates, in a foreign language, makes this team activity a real brain teaser. A 15 minute harbour boat ride will take them directly to the largest Chinatown in Japan and then they are on their own, with a provided list of activities, which they must complete by a certain time. Activities may include taking pictures of famous historical sites or buying traditional Chinese sweet dumplings. These can be tailored activities to fit the group size and interests but it will certainly be a memorable time that can only be experienced in Yokohama.
